

ENB Sports Statistics Ltd - NCAA Baseball 2003 Top 20

January 15th, 2003

As with most NCAA sports due to parody the ability to pick the top 20 schools is becoming more and more difficult. This season NCAA Baseball Season is no different. Even with last seasons playoff failure Florida State look to be the top club going into this season. The Seminoles are led by Tony McQuade, pitcher Marc LaMacchia and Major Leaguer JD Drew brother Stephen Drew. Coach Mike Martin also has the ability to bring in top recruits year after year. Challenging Florida State for number 1 will be the Rice Owls who have the best collage pitching rotation since the Rodger Clemons Texas club in the 80's, Georgia Tech, Stanford and Wake Forest. The ACC is the top conference this season with four top-20 clubs including number 1, 3 and 5. The SCC also has four clubs in the top 20 with the Pac-10 and Big 12 with three. The outsiders include Rice, Cal State Fullerton, Notre Dame, Houston, Richmond, and Long Beach.

Note: All Player information is taken from the NCAA with Statistics from the 2002 season.
